DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-7, 11-41, 44-75, and 78-102 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In regards to claim 1, 35, and 69 prior art does not teach displaying a glyph within a browser window, wherein the display of the glyph indicates an existence of the first constraint interface and the glyph graphically represents the settings for the first constraint interface and modifying the glyph when the first constraint interface is mated with the second constraint interface in addition to all the other claim limitations.

In regards to claim 2, 36, and 70 prior art does not teach selecting a command to place the first component in a display window by selecting the first component and automatically placing the first component in the display window without further user interaction based on the settings of the first constraint interface in addition to all the other claim limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
